Scott’s Tank Top Badges : Frank Sidebottom, Alan & I Love Cheese

Pre-Show Nerves : (Length: 13:35)

Records Played:

The Lottery Winners

General:

Tonight’s record looks like a giant fried egg...just saying!

It’s The Lottery Winners. Scott holds up the record sleeve featuring three large sad-chopped dogs and a small curly white one. It’s a signed copy.

He’s looking tank-top-orific as usual...this evening’s finery being his trademark rainbow number over a lilac tie-dyed shirt.

I love Cheese, pipe smoking Alan, and F*ck Boris on badges.

Another tuft of hair appears to be on the rise...where’s Gervaise when you need him?

A big thank you to Kathryn Roberts from Scott for her appearance on last week’s show. “She’s a very serious folkie, an er...but she’s got a great sense of humour...an I like that,” he says.

Pubs are now back open. Live shows can be done in the open air. Scott still thinks it’s too soon: “When the Houses of Parliament av got full capacity again, then it’s safe.” (Laughs)

Scott laments not being able to do live shows, goes on a wee Tory tirade and thanks fans for helping him keep working during these difficult times...even though it is from home.

Bjorn is currently down in Gloucestershire, Alan’s in Norfolk.

Scott says he considered playing another album which arrived today. A picture disc of...wait for it...

ALADDIN!

He says he’s not a huge Disney fan, but has a ‘bit of a thing’ for Aladdin because he thought Robin Williams was great in it (he played the Genie in the animated film).

Facebook told Scott off for playing Queens Of The Stone Age last week because of copyright issues. He wonders if the same thing will happen this week as The Lottery Winners are now a signed band.

“I’m gonna go an, er...get me gig face on.”

“Have fun...see y’all in a bit.”

Aftershow : (Length: 39:21)

Location: The campervan

Friend Like Me (Disney's Aladdin)

Fisherman's Blues (The Waterboys)

You Shook Me All Night Long (AC/DC)

Take It Easy (Eagles)

Sweet Child O' Mine (Guns N' Roses)

Riverflow (Levellers)

Shit Raffle Winner: Melissa Slaney & Pamela Green.

Honourable winner, John Shanks, for a drawing he did of the Doonicans.

General:

There are technically two aftershows this evening...one lasts just a couple of minutes before Scott cuts it saying he'll be back in a sec.

The short clip is titled Aftershow Party #16.

Scott opens saying: "I'm outta puff...(laughs breathlessly)...I've just legged it down from upstairs." It ends shortly afterwards.

The main aftershow is titled We're Back.

Turns out Scott and Amanda's neighbours are having a massive party and Scott forgot to lock the house. He was worried about being burgled. He also left his iPad inside with all his lyrics on and doesn't like to be without them when performing.

During the main show Amanda had showed Scott a picture of Jo Pollard's dog Alfie with a flat cap on and they both thought he looked cute.

Scott says Kathryn Roberts' mum Carol has popped on to the video chat.

He says it was an "absolute honour" to sing Prince Ali with Eliza Carthy this evening.

Sings a Friend Like Me, sung by Robin Williams in Disney's Aladdin.

Eliza Carthy pops up on the chat.

Next up, a dedication for Muddy Summers & The Dirty Field Whores: Fishermans' Blues by The Waterboys. Bjorn is with them down in Gloucestershire at the moment.

Amanda says it's Alan's party piece performing Fisherman's Blues, apparently he "has the lilting tones of Terry Wogan".

Scott says he thinks of Alan as Terry Wogan often...considers getting him to do The Floral Dance at some point :)

Scott had asked people to send in requests this week, expecting them to ask for Doonicans' songs...but no...they asked for all manner of covers by different artists! This led to a bit of an eclectic set list in the main show, including Lady Gaga and Jake Thackray.

The randomness continues as Scott plays AC/DC, You Shook Me All Night Long, for Amanda Ong.

Take It Easy by Eagles follows.

Then, a song which Scott says was one of the first he learned to play on guitar...Guns N' Roses Sweet Child O' Mine.

Final song, Riverflow by Levellers.

Scott says he really misses the Doonicans and had a little cry when they met for The Shed Sessions.

Amanda decided to clear the garage out this week and Scott suggested they put a bar in it.

Scott and Amanda's neighbours' dog broke out and did a runner round their estate...they didn't notice he'd gone due to their party being in full swing. The dog was returned safely thanks to other neighbours.

Ends with goodbyes and goodnights.
