Special Guest:

On Screen Banner text: Scott Doonican - Live From Barnsley Rock

First Appearance of :

Trivia : Scott is wearing a party hat as are various puppets throughout the show.

This show marks the 14th anniversary of the Doonicans first gig.

In the "Flash" video of the Mk. 1 line up the band are in KISS make up, Scott as Peter Criss, Danny as Paul Stanley and Alan #1 as Ace Frehley. Scott regrets not being Gene Simmons! "This Town...." Is from the same gig.

"Wath-On-Dearne Blues" is played on Dobro Guitar using a slide for the first time on BNI.

Scott reveals that he wished "Lift Dickie Bird...." had been a duet and states his choice for vocalist would be Kathryn Roberts.

Amanda provides occasional percussion on "Flat-Packs" using a hammer and frying pan.

Alan chooses "The Complete Book of Self Sufficiency" by John Seymour as his book choice for Desert Island Discs. The book that inspired the classic BBC comedy "The Good Life".

In the "(You Gotta) Fight For Your Pint (In Barnsley)" clip Scott plummets off of the chair he was standing on.

Quotes : "Welcome to Big Neet In number 13, bloody hell how did that happen? Something that was meant to be one or maybe two shows at most and we're still here, good Christ what are we playing at!"

"You made a sound like Bruce Forsythe"

"We're playing on chuffing YouTube instead of Wembley"

"Why has Cheeky Monkey got a stick up his arse?"

"I miss the pub"

“It’s not easy playing the accordion sitting down. You can get your nips caught in the bellows”

“I apologise I stole it off your YouTube page!”

“Amanda wouldn’t trust me with power tools”

“Wok on”

“My hand is covered in spit” (Bjorn at the end of “Silent Farter”)

Scott’s Tank Top Badges : Dennis The Menace & Tom Robinson Band

Pre-Show Nerves : (Length: 16:24)

Records Played:

Shave Your Head (Rico)

Elvis Costello

Fiesta (The Pogues)

I’ve Got The Music In Me (The Kiki Dee Band)

General:

“Evenin’ all...ow y’all doin? Hope we’re all keepin’ well on this fine...sunny as hell...really hot Sat’dee evenin.” (Laughs)

“It is absolutely meltin’ in this room at the minute.”

Scottish industrial rock artist Rico is on play, belting out Shave Your Head.

Fan roll call.

Wednesday this week was the 14th anniversary of the Doonicans’ first gig, so a birthday theme for tonight’s show.

A tank top being worn this evening is nothing short of heroic in the blistering heat.

Scott’s got his lime green geometric patterned shirt on under his orangey-pink and lemon striped tank top, with mint borders.

Scott asks viewers to tell him what they’ve been up to (on the Facebook chat thread).

Adam Myers from Canadians in Space pops in to say hello.

Scott says autocorrect often ‘corrects’ Doonicans to Dominicans.

Paula Harper Munday says she’s training for an ultra-marathon.

Scott: “Bloody ‘ell Paula Harper Munday. You’re crazy! Why would you do that? Don’t...don’t go runnin’...that’s, that’s, that’s what mad people do. Yer know...sit in and eat chips like me.”

Jenny Fuller has completed Alan’s new tank top.

Record stops...Scott switches it, puts Elvis Costello on.

Scott says his lockdown locks are looking “pretty damn fine”...though he noticed, while on a recent Zoom chat, that Alan’s are “out of control”.

“Summer solstice is tomorrow...time for some Spinal Tap and Stonehenge”, quips a fan.
(It's later mentioned that summer solstice 2020 is actually this evening, not tomorrow)

Regina Watson, Bjorn's step-grandma, is watching.

And now, some Pogues...Fiesta!

It's week 14 of lockdown but show #13 due to BNI missing a week on week #3.

Scott has seen The Pogues several times, says Shane fell off stage 3 times during one gig.

Next on the turntable: I've Got The Music In Me by The Kiki Dee Band. Says 'PLAY LOUD' in the centre of the vinyl.

Scott says he and Amanda once saw Lemmy with Motorhead, supporting Alice Cooper, and Amanda managed to fall asleep during Motorhead because she was exhausted from teaching.

Ends, “See yer in a bit...byyyeee!”

Aftershow : (Length: 26:21)

Location: The campervan

Songs Played:

Radio Ga Ga (Queen)

One Man Band (Leo Sayer)

We'll Meet Again (Vera Lynn)

Shit Raffle Winner: Rachel Lowe & Gareth Parsons

General:

What a delight to see the Doonicorn in its full, slightly askew glory tonight.
(It's Scott's party hat...unicorn...Doonicorn...you know what I mean!?)

Amanda's wearing a Kate Rusby T-shirt sent in by fan, Sharron Cranmer.

She has just 20 rows more to knit before Scott's new tank top is finished.

Some people made out they were disappointed not to see Alan in the main show. While they were pleased to see Scott and Bjorn, they are missing seeing all three Doonicians together. Scott reminds them he was there, 'in the jar' (knitted Alan). In truth, Alan's internet had been bad, so he only managed to do his vocals remotely, but couldn't film himself.

Scott and Amanda hint it won't be long before all three Doonicians are seen together again, alluding to a 'lovely' socially distanced afternoon they appear to have had.

As Scott gets ready to play a song, Amanda tries to re-adjust the van lighting so it's more focused on him.

Scott: “I don't think anyone gives a shit, everyone's 'ammered!” (Laughs)

Plays Queen, Radio Ga Ga.

Then, a cheers with Amanda: “14 years! Shit ot.”

“Crazy times. Thank you fer stickin’ with us all these years. Whether you’ve bin with us fer a year...or the whole fourteen...yer know.”

Scott dedicates the next song to Alan and Bjorn...it’s Leo Sayer’s One Man Band.

Dame Vera Lynn passed away earlier this week, so Scott plays We’ll Meet Again in tribute to her, while also giving a nod to Doonicans, past and present, who he hopes to see again soon.

Scott thinks drive-in gigs are weird.

He also thinks it’s weird he has to broadcast every weekend from his upstairs room.

“It’s been grand. God bless. Goodnight. Take care o yerselves. And we’ll hopefully see yer next weekend. It’s been a pleasure. So, god bless, goodnight. Take care. Byeeee!”
