On Screen Banner text: Scott Doonican Live Frum Barnsley Rock City – The Big Requests Show Neet In

First Appearance of :

Trivia : Amanda puts Scott off during the R.E.M. cover by displaying an “I’m an idiot” sign.

Morris presents the quiz from the garden.

Scott calls “The Ornithologist Waltz” “The Twitcher”.

Scott owns some Joy Division oven gloves (one for all the Half Man Half Biscuit fans!)

Amanda unfurls a big Greggs banner in “The Lady In Greggs”

The Puppet chorus appear in “Bohemian Rhapsody” consisting of Morris, The Devil, Shergar and Emu as filmed inserts.

Quotes : “Bugger it, I nearly got it right”

“Oh my God, you’ve got loads of stuff over there. You’ve gone mad!”

“I actually got that right! Jesus!”

“Special Bell-end alert!”

“I do for acting what Matt Hancock does for the NHS”

“Jesus Christ what are we doing Amanda? There’s got to be weirder ways to make a living I’m sure. I could be on the game!”

“This was the most requested song of the night that probably means after I play this everyone will bugger off!”

“That’s a bit bigger than a thimble!”

“I said the Gas man not a monkey”

“Jesus I just choked meself”

Scott’s Tank Top Badges : Go Folk Yourself & Richard Ayoade

Pre-Show Nerves : (Length: 06:38)

Records Played:

Power In The Darkness – Live From The 100 Club (Tom Robinson)

General:

Tonight kicks off with regard to Scott and Amanda hitting week 12 of BNI:

Scott: “What was meant to be a one off kinda got a bit out of hand din’t it.”

He and Amanda went to see Tom Robinson on the 40th anniversary of Power In The Darkness.

Scott’s rocking a red, lemon-yellow, turquoise-blue and grass green tank top this evening, with red edging, over an orangey-red shirt.

It’s a request show this week...and this has been popular. About 30 songs will be played tonight.

A fan says Scott doesn’t appear nervous. Scott reveals he’s good at hiding it.

Scott says he's feeling a little worse for wear following a Zoom quiz with the Doonicans and Sweetchunks Band the night before.

"Hi Scott, it's Clem Fandango!" someone messages in.

Scott's hoping venues booked for the Christmas tour will still be functioning by the time they get to those shows.

Video cuts abruptly.

Aftershow : (Length: 15:15)

Location: The campervan

Songs Played:

May You Never (John Martyn)

Got My Mind Set On You (Written by Rudy Clark, covered by George Harrison in 1987)

Love Machine (Girls Aloud)

Shit Raffle Winner: James Haslam & Jonathan Ede (was originally read out as Denzil Ede)

General:

"Evening, welcome to the aftershow party."

Scott says putting Bohemian Rhapsody together this week was "quite the challenge".

Progress report on Amanda's knitting: she's up to the arm holes.

During the show Scott had been worried Amanda might take a tumble off the stool while standing on it holding up the Greggs banner.

Jenny Fuller's been hard at work knitting Alan a new tank top.

Some viewers are reporting storms this evening. Scott says all he's got is noisy neighbours who aren't adhering to social distancing.

"Thank you very much to everyone who donated tonight. It makes a hell of a difference...I'll tell yer. Erm, cuz like I said before, you are actually, technically my employer at the minute. You lot, er...yer keeping me, erm... from having to, er... go on the game."

Ends: "It's goodnight from me and it's goodnight from her. Byeee. Ta-ra!"
