

BNI #31 Premiered 24/10/2020 (Time 2 Hr 35)

Songs Played:

Poisoning Pigeons in the Park (Tom Lehrer cover)

Massage in a Brothel

Shirley – Cover of Richard Digance song.

If I could Punch a Face...

The Zipper (From Show 1000 with Sign Language from Sarah Gatland)

She's From Dodworth

Sean Bean

Avon Calling

Cockwombling Song – Live at Cropredy 2018

Tarnlife

Walking in Man Piss

Frisky in the Jar

God Only Knows...

Quiz: Presented by Morris from the Pint of the Puppet

Pint Fever

Bag for Life

Since You've Been Ron

Silent Farther – Video, Alan Doonican – Screen Banner – Alan Doonican – We all know what he is, don't we?

Move, 'Yer Knackered

No More Heroes

All Ararnd My Hat– Video Scott Doonican montage

Morris Dance – Video Montage

Dead Right Hand

Paint 'em Back

Too Good To Be Jus

Quiz Answers

The Bar-Steward Sons of Val Doonican – Live at Redditch 25-10/2019 (Back when things were normal) Video The Devil Went Darn to Barnsley and

Jump Ararnd

Encore-y Bit!

Ukelele Time! Amanda reminds Scott to "Keep it Light."

Bin Full of Bottles

That's Why I'm Queasy

Bring Me Sunshine – Complete with Big Band Ending

Final Message from Morris at The Pint and Puppet – "Take your glasses to the bar, take your glasses to the bar and tickle off home."

Rainbow Connection – Video. Scott Doonican, Amanda and Frog.

Quiz Questions: Theme: "Pubs"

1 – What is the name of the fictional brewery that owns the Rovers Return on Coronation Street?

Newton and Ridley

2 – What is the name of Jim Royle’s local put that is frequently mentioned on The Royle Family?

The Feathers

3 – Which American actor played publican Sam Malone in the sitcom Cheers?

Ted Danson

4 – Del Boy and Rodney regularly frequent what pub in the sitcom Only Fools and Horses?

The Nags Head

5 – In which pub would the characters of Shaun of the Dead wait for things to blow over?

The Winchester Tavern

6 – In the film The Blues Brothers, what is special about the stage at Bob’s Country Bunker?

It is covered in chicken wire to stop the band being pelted by bottles.

7 – Café Rene is the café bar in the 80’s sitcom ‘Allo ‘Allo. What is bar-owner Rene’s surname?

Artois

8 – The Hog’s Head is the fictional pub in the magical village of Hogsmeade in which book and film series?

Harry Potter

9 – A pan galactic Gargleblaster is a drink in which series of books?

The Hitch Hiker’s Guide to the Galaxy

10 – What is the name of the Barnsley pub where The Bar-Steward Sons of Val Doonican played their first ever show?

Thawleys

Special Guest: Bjorn (Again!)

On Screen Banner text: Scoot Doonican Live Frum Barnsley in Tier Three Lockdown

First Appearance of : The Quiz down the Pint and Puppet!

The now legendary catchphrase – “Well it’s my gaff and my rules.”

Trivia : Tom Lehrer who wrote tonight’s first song, Poisoning Pigeons in the Park made all his music public the very week of show #31

Cropredy 2018 footage – the biggest outdoor audience for the Barstewards!

Alan Doonican wrote ‘Walking in Man Piss’ after a trip to a Harrogate Blues bar.

Morris missed out answer 7 to the quiz!

Quotes : “We are gonna have a crazy night toneet. We are 20 hours into lockdown and its not affecting me yet. I’m just going to drink through.’

(Prophetic words indeed!)

“We are keeping it light in the North!” (“Other places are available.”)

“I’m not viable any more as an entertainer so I have had to retrain.” (Morris on his move to the pub for the quiz.)

“You keep lining ‘em up and I’ll keep drinking ‘em!” Scott to Morris.

“The Pint and Puppet is the place to be.”

Scott’s Tank Top Badges : Pink I am Viable badge and ‘We don’t like these apples’ Small European Circle Badge reading ‘Fuck Boris’ in the centre.

Pre-Show Nerves : N/A

Aftershow : (Length: 37:23)

Location: The campervan

Songs Played:

Song For Whoever (The Beautiful South)

The Takin’ Is Easy (The Wonder Stuff)

Country Roads (John Denver)

Shit Raffle Winner: John Creaghan, Cullen Henshaw & Paula Harper Munday

General:

Nottingham is going into Tier 3 on Wednesday...Bjorn will be affected by this.

Wales are having a tough time at the moment too. Apparently there is a beer shortage in shops.

Scott recommends people order it online instead. He says Adnams Brewery are good. He ordered Tom (The Devil) some at the start of lockdown, as he is a frontline worker and was having difficulty finding beer after his long shifts, and although it wasn’t a fast delivery, it arrived safely.

Scott searches for his plectrum, finds it camouflaged against the mandala fabric covering the van’s seating area.

Amanda’s sporting a new The Wonder Stuff T-shirt, black with a gold moon face, which Scott bought for her to replace her old one.

He picks up his guitar, dedicates the first song to Danny Doonican, who used to sing it in the early days of the Doonicans, and Tom Large. It’s the delightful Song For Whoever by The Beautiful South. All together now...

“Jenni-fer.....Ali-son.....Phil-ippa.....Sue.....Debor-ah.....Anna-bel too.”

Scott is pleased The Pint & Puppet has been finished on time (his own personal pub in his garage).

He and Amanda are kitting it out with Monopoly, Jenga, Trivial Pursuit, a dartboard and some Dunelm folding tables. The plan is to ask Amanda’s mum to officially open it when she gets out of hospital. “We’re gonna get some ribbon and everything,” says Scott.

Next up, a Wonder Stuff song: The Takin’ Is Easy.

Then, a hard-hitting one with Suzanne Vega’s Luka.

Final song of the evening: John Denver’s Country Roads.

Closing comments include a mention of some of Scott and Amanda’s favourite TV shows at the moment: Taskmaster and Gone Fishing.

N.B. There is no Pre-show #31

Archive Compiled by :

Pre-Show Nerves : N/A

Broadcast : Matthew Jarvis

Aftershow : Paula McArdle